Dear Parent/Carer,

Year 10 Mock Examinations June, 2018

With the final months of the academic year fast approaching, Year 10 pupils need to be increasingly focused on how they can best prepare for their final examinations. In supporting pupils' preparations for the challenges of next year, Ian Ramsey Church of England Academy will be conducting mock examinations starting the week commencing Tuesday 18th June, 2018. These examinations will help teachers to effectively measure your child's progress and assist in establishing the next steps to be taken by pupils.

It is essential that all pupils use their time carefully in preparing for these exams. As pupils are currently preparing for their external final examinations in English Literature, I would envisage this being the focus of revision until after the final English Literature examination on 25th May, 2018. Revision activities will be taking place in school but dedicated time to prepare also needs to be put aside at home. Further guidance regarding revision materials and websites can be found in the document Year 10 Pupil and Parent Survival Guide, issued earlier in the year at the Year 10 Curriculum Information Evening. This document is also available on the school website.

Please find the mock examination timetable attached.

Yours faithfully,

Mr J Walters
