Dear Parent/Carer,

It has been wonderful to see all the children back in school today, including officially welcoming our new Year 7 pupils to Ian Ramsey. We are already impressed by the attitude of our pupils to a new school year and feel that they look very smart and professional in their attire.

Although the new skirts look really smart and professional, there has been a slight confusion over the acceptable trousers for the girls at Ian Ramsey. They are only allowed to wear smart, straight trousers and should not be wearing tight lycra type trousers/leggings. These trousers are unacceptable and will need to be replaced immediately. However, we understand the expense that a new school year can bring and are aware that some parents may struggle to replace these. The good news is that we have some spare trousers in stock so, if you feel this applies to you, please contact us and we will offer some confidential financial assistance.

We have tried to speak to all of the pupils concerned today and, if this applies to your child, we would appreciate it if you could write a note in their planner so that tutors and Heads of Year can monitor the situation more easily. We expect all pupils to be in the correct uniform by Monday 10th September or earlier if possible and, as ever, we really appreciate your support in this matter.

Kind Regards,

Mr Brian Janes
Head Teacher
