

Read like a THEOLOGIAN

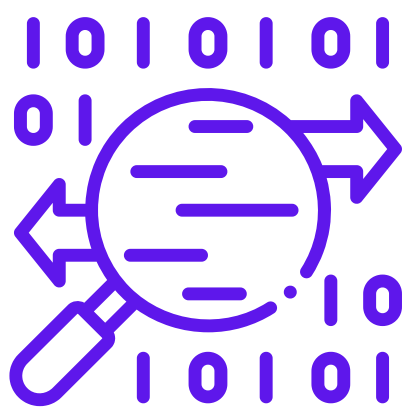

Identify the context of the writing.

When was it written? Who was the target audience?

Consider if and how the text has been translated.

Has the text been translated? How might this affect the understanding of the passage and/or key terms within it?

Analyse and consider points of view through a logical chain of reasoning.

What is the text telling you? How might this have been understood by the original audience? How is this text understood today?

Consider what the text makes you think and why.

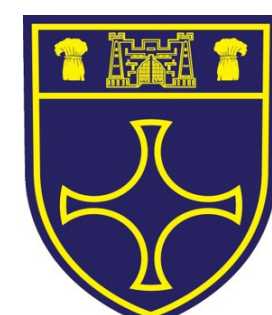

What big questions does the text raise? What are the challenges within the text?

Think about how this reflects the experiences of others

How does this text relate to our own experiences or experiences of others?

'Let us move beyond the elementary teachings...and be taken forward to maturity.'
- Hebrews 6:1
